

Ralf & Nicole, Laurent & Martha and Karim have moved within the estate to form a retirement flat share and support each other.

When their two children Guilia and Sofia get too old to share a room, Yasmine and Francesco are considering creating a sleeping alcove in one of the straw-walls to free up another individual room.

Markus and Peter like to invite lots of friends to their large living room, which they also use as a home office

Maria lives alone in her studio and enjoys the open and light-flooded space from one facade to the other
